Teacher-Supervisors: Ref: T08-43

Multiple Subject Teacher Supervisor: Primary responsibilities include supervising student teachers, teaching courses on methods for Multiple Subject areas (or instructional methods), and serving on Education Department admissions, planning and policy committees. Supervisors also are responsible for assisting credential candidates to complete a comprehensive assessment of their instruction based on the California Teaching Performance Expectations. Applicants to this position who are BCLAD certified are also encouraged to apply.

The Department currently prepares between 80-90 credential students for teaching in K-12 California public schools. The program, which also grants a Masters of Arts in Education, operates on a year-round (summer to summer) schedule.

This position is for the FY16 academic year at up to 100% time depending upon the size of the multiple subject cohort. Service for fall quarter begins two to three weeks prior to the official start of the UCSC fall quarter.

BASIC QUALIFICATIONS: Applicants must possess a clear California teaching credential with a minimum of five years of recent (within 3 years) public school teaching experience at the K-6 level. Candidates should have experience working with working with culturally and linguistically diverse student populations. Candidates also should be able to demonstrate experience with local school districts and surrounding communities. A masters degree in Education, previous experience supervising student teachers, and leadership experience (e.g., staff development) is highly desirable. BCLAD: applicants must possess a clear California teaching credential and BCLAD certification (or equivalent) in Spanish with a minimum of five years of recent successful public school teaching experience at the K-6 level in a Spanish – English bilingual setting.

Compensation: $45,684-$71,220, commensurate with experience and qualifications

TO APPLY: Applicants should email an informative letter of application, curriculum vitae or resume, three* current letters of recommendation, a writing sample, and evidence of teaching excellence (a successful teaching record which demonstrates an excellent performance as a classroom teacher and can be verified by colleagues and supervisors) to the Education Department (edhr@ucsc.edu) by 5pm on April 8th 2016. If you are already in the Teacher-Supervisor pool you will only need to submit your application letter and updated CV.

*An application will not be considered without a minimum of two letters of recommendation.
