 MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION AND
 CALIFORNIA TEACHING CREDENTIAL PROGRAM
 INFORMATION BULLETIN #3
 September 2022

Included below are important information and deadlines that we want to bring to your attention. Be sure to take the time to review ALL information included in the MA/Credential Program bulletins. Please be sure to meet deadlines for all action items. See the “Due Date” column on the right.

Note: The online course schedules often have incorrect information. Please refer to the most recent bulletin for accurate information.

The bulletin is formatted for use as a checklist if you wish. Please keep a copy of each bulletin for current and future reference. All bulletins will be sent to your UCSC email account and archived on our website.

If you have any questions regarding credential and or testing requirements, please email Esperanza Zamora.

Please make these immunizations a high priority! Without them, an enrollment hold will be placed on your registration. · 3) Flu Vaccine Fall Requirements ● The University of California issued an executive order on Oct. 8, 2021, requiring flu vaccination for all students, faculty, other academic appointees, and staff living, working, who will learn, live or work on-premises at a UC facility. ● The requirements and deadlines for Fall 2022 will be announced when they are confirmed. ● For employees, please see the frequently asked questions about UC's 2021-2022 flu vaccine executive order to learn more about UC's policy. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Deadline ○ The deadline for all required vaccines (except Flu) is before you come to campus. However, please consider the deadline to be "as soon as possible" so you don't risk enrollment holds. ○ Get Started! UCSC recommends starting right away on meeting the mandatory vaccines requirements. Here's what to do. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Gather your vaccination records and compare them to the UC Immunization requirements (English version) (Mandarin version). 2. See a healthcare provider to get any missing vaccinations. 3. Upload your vaccine dates and vaccine card or record to Health e-Messenger's MEDICAL CLEARANCES section. Always use Health e-Messenger. It's secure! We can't accept records through email, fax, or mail. If you need help uploading, see: Detailed instructions
CalFresh and Other Campus Resources for Food Security Below is information below about CalFresh and also about a number of other campus UCSC resources to increase student food security. While we are happy to say that the UCSC MA/C Program is an approved Cal Fresh Employee and Training Program, we are devastated and furious that Cal Fresh is not available to DACA, international and undocumented students. The university asks that if you have DACA, or are an international or undocumented student, that you	Available Now

Grad Student Lounge and Mailroom The Education Grad Student Lounge and Mailroom is in McHenry Library Room 2167. The code for the door to this room is 008614. This is a shared space for all Education graduate students, MA/C and PhD. Unfortunately, we have no support for the equipment in this room - you will need to troubleshoot any printer issues on your own. Since this is a shared space, please clean up after you use it. We thank you for remembering to be respectful of the various needs of all who enter and want to use the room. The university offers a Graduate Student Commons located near the bookstore. There are rooms that can be reserved for quiet activity, computer equipment for check out and printers. For more information...	Throughout year
McHenry Library Services If you haven't had a chance to visit McHenry Library, try to stop by either virtually or in person. There are some special services and collections that you will want to know about (see below). Remember that you can access electronic journals and databases while on campus and in the library. Your UCSC photo ID card is your library card — it must be activated at the Library Circulation Desk. Once your card is activated, the barcode becomes your login for access to electronic journals and article databases from off campus and for reserving study rooms online. A few of the services and collections offered: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Multicultural and Award-Winning Children's Literature Curriculum Collection. McHenry Library an excellent collection of children's literature located on the fourth floor. • Computer stations to check email and work on documents (e.g., MS Word). • Laptop checkout—Mac or PC—for temporary use. • Study rooms for approximately seven people, some with display screens you can connect to your laptop. Reserve online. 	Throughout year

•Media Center (on the first floor) has a wide variety of DVDs and CDs for checkout. There are also individual and group listening and viewing rooms. Food and drink are allowed in the library following these guidelines: “Think snack and wrapped items; avoid foods that have a strong smell or are messy; use covered drinks; leave your area clean and report any spills.”
Save Summer Quarter work for the Becoming an Educator (BAE) paper With your summer courses now complete, it is a good time to reflect on the broad foundational knowledge you have and continue to acquire, and how these ideas relate to your classroom teaching experiences. You will also want to keep copies of all your summer work, much of which will be useful as you begin work on your BAE paper in the Spring Quarter. Please also remember to keep any reading or reference lists handy as you will need to refer to significant readings from your coursework in your BAE, which is your culminating paper.	Throughout year
